

GWINN ADVISES AGAINST SALE OF HONEY NOW

Farmers Told to Hold Sweets for Higher Price Next Year.

By W. A. WENNER

All local beekeepers in the Green Bay district are advised by the Green Bay Honey Raisers' Association to hold their honey for a higher price next year. The association, which is composed of the Green Bay Beekeepers' Association, the Wisconsin Beekeepers' Association and the National Beekeepers' Association, has been successful in securing a higher price for honey than for some time past.

The association has been successful in securing a higher price for honey than for some time past. It has been successful in securing a higher price for honey than for some time past. It has been successful in securing a higher price for honey than for some time past.

BCBA 29 Jan 1931

Clipped By:

z02966
Fri, Feb 12, 2021